

World Affairs Council
of Western Michigan

Great Decisions Global Discussions 2020

March 23 and 24

China's Road into Latin America

Margaret Myers

Director, Asia & Latin America Program, Inter-American Dialogue

Should the U.S. be concerned about China's growing "sphere of influence"?

As the Trump administration advocates for withdrawal from the world stage, China is looking to fill the void. How does Latin America fit into China's "One Belt, One Road" plan?

An expert in China's growing influence in Latin America, Margaret Myers will offer perspective on the new dynamics emerging. Should the U.S. be concerned about China's growing "sphere of influence"?

More on our speaker

Know the World, then Change the World

Two options to attend:

Monday, 6-7:15 p.m.: Aquinas College Performing Arts Center

Tuesday, 12-1 p.m.: Recital Hall in the Covenant Fine Arts Center at Calvin University
Parking recommended next to the De Vos Communication Building or the Prince Conference Center, with covered access across E. Beltline taking you directly to the Covenant Fine Arts Center

$10 admission per discussion

Free admission to WACWM corporate members and their employees; Senator members; and the faculty, staff and students of our educational partners.

No reservations needed. Free, convenient parking.

Topic Sponsor: Friends of the World Affairs Council

