

World Affairs Council
of Western Michigan

Great Decisions Global Discussions 2020

March 9 and 10

Human Trafficking: Global and Local Perspectives

Panel moderated by Rachel VerWys

Co-creator, Solutions to End Exploitation (SEE)

Human trafficking is a global phenomenon—what’s happening in our own backyard?

Moderated by Rachel VerWys, the co-creator of a local non-profit working to combat human trafficking in West Michigan, this panel will discuss the issue from multiple perspectives, including law enforcement and survivor advocacy. While there are no easy answers to solving this problem, the panel will discuss how our community can respond to the issue with empathy and practicality.

More on our speaker

Know the World, then Change the World

Two options to attend:

Monday, 6-7:15 p.m.: Aquinas College Performing Arts Center

Tuesday, 12-1 p.m.: Recital Hall in the Covenant Fine Arts Center at Calvin University

Parking recommended next to the De Vos Communication Building or the Prince Conference Center, with covered access across E. Beltline taking you directly to the Covenant Fine Arts Center

$10 admission per discussion

Free admission to WACWM corporate members and their employees; Senator members; and the faculty, staff and students of our educational partners.

No reservations needed. Free, convenient parking.

Topic Sponsor: Aquinas College

Spectrum Health

