

Great Decisions Global Discussions 2022

Know the World, then Change the World

February 28

Russia and the U.S.

(please note this event will be held at the Spectrum Theatre on GRCC's campus)

Fiona Hill, former senior director, National Security Council

Russia continues to present a challenge to the U.S. and Europe, evidenced by the worsening situation in Ukraine. How might the U.S. find an effective counter to Russia? And does that mean solving internal divisions within our own country first? Join Fiona Hill, former senior director on the National Security Council, as she discusses the U.S.-Russian relationship and the long-term trends that brought us here.

Dr. Fiona Hill is a senior fellow in the Center on the United States and Europe in the Foreign Policy program at Brookings. She recently served as deputy assistant to the president and senior director for European and Russian affairs on the National Security Council from 2017 to 2019. From 2006 to 2009, she served as national intelligence officer for Russia and Eurasia at The National Intelligence Council. Her recent book, There is Nothing for you Here, is a memoir that examines the challenges of finding opportunity post-deindustrialization in the West.

In person and Livestreamed on YouTube
6 - 7:15 PM

Spectrum Theatre, GRCC campus (160 Fountain St. NE).
Free parking at the Bostwick parking lot. Campus map here.

Masks required for in-person attendees. Web program archived.

Public invited. $10 admission per discussion, $60 for a series pass.
Free admission to WACWM corporate members and their employees; Senator members; and the faculty, staff and students of our educational partners.

Register here.

Thanks to Series Sponsor: Wolverine Worldwide

Thanks to Media Sponsors: Blue Lake Public Radio and the Community Media Foundation

Thanks to Topic Sponsor: Grand Valley State University